Suffragets Give Leader Auto

DR. ANNA HOWARD SHAW HER NEW SUFFRAGE AUTO.

NEW YORK.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the suffrage leader, is proudly riding in the streets in her new auto, presented by the National Woman's Suffrage association amid impressive ceremonies at their headquarters in Fifth avenue. Shaw, 51, is a touring car, almost twice the size of the little yellow "livver" presented to Dr. Shaw some time ago, and so ruthlessly taken by Pennsylvania authorities in lieu of the payment of certain taxes to which the suffragist objected. The suffrage association re-deemed the little yellow car, but it was found to be too small to carry Dr. Shaw and the corps of speakers traveling with her, so a touring car was purchased.

It has been named "Eastern Victory," the same as the little yellow auto. Dr. Shaw is president of the association.
